ORGANIZATIONAL MISSION:

This announcement advertises a GS-13 position. Lower graded employees may apply, but if selected would accept the position as a lateral reassignment at their current grade as all promotion decisions are made during the DNI CAB process.

Component Mission:

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the United States Government pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. And it conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the federal government.

Office Mission:

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) Directorate of Strategic Operational Planning (DSOP) conducts standing and dynamic planning efforts, coordinating, integrating, and synchronizing counterterrorism (CT) plans across 29 federal departments and agencies with a role in counterterrorism. Working with interagency partners to identify goals, objectives, roles and responsibilities consistent with policy established by the National Security Staff, DSOP bridges the gap between overarching policy and implementation strategy. In addition, DSOP monitors USG department and agency plan implementation, assesses plan effectiveness, and assists the Office of Management and Budget in tracking interagency CT budget allocations.

Group/Branch Information:

The Group within NCTC's Directorate of Strategic Operational Planning is responsible for writing whole-of-government counterterrorism (CT) plans for the Middle East region. The group integrates, coordinates and synchronizes US gov't CT planning across the Interagency. It writes strategic CT implementation plans and monitors their effectiveness. It responds to tasking from the National Security Council staff, and it often pulls together Interagency experts to conduct whole-of-government planning on CT issues in the Middle East region.

DUTIES:

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

Integrate and develop counterterrorism (CT) planning efforts in coordination and collaboration with other United States Government (USG) agencies.

Implement interagency plans by coordinating and integrating competing requirements and priorities of multiple stakeholders; plan and participate in interagency meetings.

Identify gaps and impediments that are negatively impacting successful plan implementation efforts and develop solid and well-researched recommendations for policies/procedures designed to reduce these gaps.

Prepare and present briefings, reports, and presentations to National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leadership, senior policymakers, National Security Staff, and other USG consumers in a manner that meets their specified requirements.

Coordinate interagency and cross-directorate collaboration on programs and objectives; evaluate and assess these efforts to ensure their success.

Promote and share information and knowledge within NCTC and with other government agencies, and effectively recognize, value, build, and leverage diverse and collaborative networks within these organizations.

Develop and continually expand personal expertise in facilitating the cooperation and effective coordination of organizations within NCTC, the Intelligence Community, and other USG agencies.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES REQUIRED:

Required Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

Ability to plan and coordinate the integration of existing and emerging interagency capabilities to accomplish operational or strategic objectives.

Thorough knowledge of and experience with the mission, charter, roles and responsibilities of the counterterrorism community and the interrelationships of its customers and stakeholders.

Thorough interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including a demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment.

Ability to communicate complex information clearly, concisely, and in a manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences, to include senior-level policymakers.

Desired KSAs:

Knowledge of the Middle East region, either from having worked or deployed there. Knowledge could also be acquired through advanced study such as college major, masters degree program or PhD study. Military deployments or deployments as part of Peace Corps or other USG agency or NGO would also qualify. Candidates should have a broad (if not deep) understanding of the challenges to US national security and threats to US national interests inherent in the region.

HOW YOU WILL BE EVALUATED:

You will be evaluated based upon the narrative responses you provide to each required Knowledge, Skills and Abilities (KSA's). When describing your knowledge, skills and abilities, please be sure to give examples and explain how often you used these skills, the complexity of the knowledge you possess, the level of the people you interacted with, the sensitivity of the issues you handled, etc. Your responses should describe the experience; education; and accomplishments which have provided you with the skills and knowledge required for this position.
